Property Description

A rare opportunity to acquire this spacious, well-appointed detached family home in the highly sought-after Georgian village of Woburn - the long-term historic home of the Duke of Bedford. One of a select number of homes built by Bryant Homes in 1992, this property is tucked away in a peaceful cul-de-sac on the western edge of the village. The picturesque village centre, with its charming shops, pubs and eateries, is only a short stroll away. There are many scenic country footpaths on the doorstep and the prestigious Woburn golf and country club is just a 5 minute drive away.

Offered for sale in first-class decorative order and with no forward chain, the property combines elegant, light-filled living spaces with a mature south-facing garden, detached double garage, and parking for several vehicles.

The well-balanced accommodation includes a dual-aspect reception room with feature fireplace, dining room, study and a kitchen/breakfast room with separate utility area. Upstairs, bedroom one benefits from an en-suite shower room, three further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Centrally positioned with convenient access to the M1 and within easy reach of mainline railway stations. There are a number of fine schools nearby including the renowned Harpur Trust Schools. This home offers an exceptional opportunity to reside in one of Bedfordshire's most desirable villages.

Viewing highly recommended.
