Property Description

Quilliam are delighted to present this bright and contemporary fifth-floor apartment in Jantzen House, ideally positioned just off Ealing Road in the vibrant area of Brentford. Offering 713 sq ft of modern living space, this well-designed home combines comfort, style, and convenience.

The property features a spacious open-plan reception and kitchen, flooded with natural light and perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. Two generous double bedrooms provide peaceful retreats, complemented by a large, stylish bathroom designed with relaxation in mind.

A private balcony extends the living space outdoors, ideal for morning coffee or unwinding with a book. The added benefit of an allocated parking space in the communal car park enhances the practicality of this appealing home.

With Brentford Station and multiple bus routes nearby, excellent transport links make commuting effortless. Local amenities further benefit this property with a Sainsburys Local and a independent café just minutes' walk away. This apartment represents an outstanding opportunity for buyers seeking a modern residence in a desirable, well-connected location.
