Courtyards is a highly desirable area located just off Whittlesford Road in Little Shelford and is a scheme of quality houses, cleverly arranged around a number of tree lined courtyards, inspired by 'the courts of the Cambridge colleges'. Each house is orientated to enjoy maximum levels of privacy and seclusion with lovely views over open lawned areas and a wide and varied range of mature and ornamental specimen trees and bushes. No. 40 arguably boasts the finest position within Courtyards, benefitting from a superb south-facing wrap-around private garden of around 1/3 of an acre featuring mature trees and planted borders. The property benefits from having had a series of refurbishment works completed over the last three years, including full replacement exterior cladding to insulated Hardie Plank, replacement windows and doors, new black limestone paving, bespoke wooden terrace and brise soleil. New fencing has also been installed to the garden perimeter.

The accommodation comprises a spacious entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor accommodation, fitted coats cupboard, original parquet flooring and a refitted WC just off. This beautiful parquet flooring continues through into the dual aspect sitting/dining room with large high specification glazed sliding door to garden, and understairs storage cupboards. The kitchen features a range of traditional style wooden cabinetry painted in a calming pale sage tone Farrow and Ball, and has ample work surfaces, a range-style gas double oven, dishwasher, and space for a double height fridge/freezer.

Upstairs there is a spacious light and bright landing with views over the garden from a large picture window, leading to four good sized bedrooms, including dual-aspect principal bedroom with dressing area. There is a generous 4-piece family bathroom together with laundry area, and a separate shower room with electric shower nestled between bedrooms 2 and 3. Bespoke high quality shutters are fitted to the key windows providing versatile coverage.

Outside, and particularly worthy of note, is a fantastic mature private wrap-around garden of around 1/3 of an acre offering substantial space for family lifestyle whilst still being a manageable size. There is a recently installed paved terrace area to the front of the property, and to the rear, accessed from the sitting room is a wooden terrace with feature brise soleil. The garden is mainly laid to lawn with some mature trees complementing the space. Various mature planted borders feature a variety of shrubs and plants. All enjoys excellent levels of privacy and seclusion.
