The cottage enjoys a wonderful tucked away and tranquil, private road position, ideally placed for the city centre, Addenbrookes medical campus plus there are excellent commuter links all close by. The property dates back to the early 1800's and is located within a conservation area. The front thatch was re-thatched in 2011 and the rear thatch in 2020. The pretty cottage garden is to the front of the property and well stocked with a variety of plants and shrubs plus a vegetable patch, mature trees and bushes and all enjoy good privacy.

The accommodation comprises an entrance portico, to the sitting room with stairs to first floor accommodation, storage cupboard under and original fireplace with inset multi-fuel stove. The kitchen enjoys views over the garden and is fitted with a range of attractive cabinetry, ample fitted work surfaces with inset ceramic sink unit. There is a four ring hob, oven with extractor fan, a washing machine, dishwasher and fridge/freezer. The downstairs bathroom boasts a half bath with shower attachment, low level WC and a pedestal wash hand basin. This also doubles as a cloakroom.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms that inter-link, both boasting original wide solid wood floorboards and exposed timber beams.

Location

Barton is a popular village enjoying a peaceful country setting just 3 miles south west of Cambridge and surrounded by open countryside. The village has the usual local amenities including two pubs, over a dozen independent shops at Burwash Manor, local post office and store, an excellent local primary school and the notable Comberton Village College is within cycling distance. The village is handy for access to the M11 - Junction 12 and nearby Cambridge mainline station provides fast transport to London King's Cross and Liverpool Street. Stansted Airport is a short drive away.
