The property enjoys a wonderful secluded position, tucked away at the end of Manor Road which runs adjacent to All Saints Church; a beautiful Grade II listed building dating back to the 12th century and enjoying panoramic views over countryside. The current owners have resided at the property for some twenty years and in that time have transformed the house and gardens in spectacular fashion. The attractive timber built double garage with adjoining car port and hobby room are the latest edition together with a generous gravelled parking area, all secured behind a five-bar gate for maximum seclusion.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming reception hall with stairs to first floor accommodation, attractive parquet flooring which leads to an inner reception hall with fitted book-shelving and a cloakroom/WC just off. Both bay-windowed reception rooms enjoy a sunny dual aspect with feature fireplaces and solid wood flooring. The study is fitted with bespoke hand crafted book-shelving and storage cupboards. The heart of this beautiful home is the open-planned kitchen/breakfast/family area; a wonderful family space with superb views over the garden on three sides. The kitchen area is fitted with bespoke cabinetry, solid wood working surfaces with inset double ceramic sink unit, mixer tap and drainer and a central island/breakfast bar. There is a rangemaster range style cooker, extractor and space for an American style fridge/freezer and dishwasher. The family room area boasts an Esse wood stove making winter evenings all the more cosy, and there is also an air conditioning unit for the warmer months. Just off is a handy utility room with matching cabinetry and work surfaces plus space for the usual white goods and a free standing oil fired central heating boiler.

Upstairs, off the galleried landing are five bedrooms, four doubles, and one single. Two of which boast bay windows including the master bedroom with walk-in closet, an en-suite bathroom and air conditioning unit. There is a luxury four-piece family bathroom and a separate shower room.

Outside, the property is found at the end of a private road where a five-bar gate provides access to the generous gravelled area which provides parking for numerous vehicles. The double garage boasts two electric up and over doors, power and light connected with adjacent car port and a large hobby room, ideal for those working from home. The property is nestled within gardens on all sides, including formal lawns with well stocked flower and shrub borders and beds, a brick-built raised fish pond, water feature and neat box hedging. There is a further large pond flanked by decking, the perfect place for summer evening entertaining. There are several paved terraces including one with a pergola and external power point, a wide and varied selection of specimen and fruit bearing trees, wild life meadow, chicken coop, greenhouse, timber shed, workshop and all backing onto farmland on three sides.
