Location

The Abingtons are situated on the southern outskirts of Cambridge meaning that both village and city life can be enjoyed. Little Abington and its sister village of Great Abington take advantage of a popular and highly convenient location surrounded by delightful open countryside.

Addenbrooke's Hospital, The Biomedical Campus and the Babraham Research Campus are also situated on the southern side of Cambridge making access to these locations particularly easy, especially with the excellent bus links that are available.

Local facilities include a primary school and village store with Post Office. Excellent schooling facilities are available at nearby Linton and Sawston, both of which have highly reputable village colleges with numerous adult educational amenities. Saffron Walden is about 8 miles away.

The M11 Junction of Stumps Cross is about 4 miles away with the outskirts of London about an hour's drive and Stansted Airport only 25 minutes. In addition, the nearby mainline station at Whittlesford, only 3 miles away, offers a fast service to London Liverpool Street.

The units are located close to a small business park and with direct access to the M11.
