The property has been extended and fully refurbished, skillfully blending the original character of the building with contemporary living and all associated comforts of today.

The sitting room area boasts a feature open fireplace with a stone surround and hearth and hand-crafted fitted storage cupboards and book shelving. The dining room area further boasts an Inglenook style fireplace housing a gas-fired stove with stairs leading to the first floor accommodation and a cloakroom w.c. discreetly positioned just off. The kitchen area has a large picture window overlooking the garden and its mono-pitched roof incorporates a Velux window bathing this part of the house in natural light. The kitchen is fitted with attractive cabinetry, ample fitted worksurfaces and a range of integral appliances including an induction hob, oven, extractor, fridge-freezer and dishwasher. The adjoining utility room has matching storage cupboards, fitted worksurfaces with inset single sink drainer and space for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

Upstairs off the half-galleried landing, are two double bedrooms both with fitted wardrobe cupboards and a luxury family bathroom fitted with Porcelanosa sanitaryware and beautiful floor and wall tiles. From the landing is an ornate painted steel, semi-permanent staircase that leads to the loft room with vaulted ceiling incorporating Velux roof lighting and eaves storage.

Outside, the rear garden has been designed with ease-of-maintenance in mind with a generous paved terrace leading to an artificial turfed area with raise flower and shrub beds. Gated access to the rear leads to an additional area which has parking for two cars and a timber shed. This parking area has vehicular access via a private driveway to the left of Number 35.
