This extensive semi-detached family residence offers a tucked-away position with established green surroundings and private gardens located at the bottom of a long driveway off Green End Road. The property is within easy reach of the Science Park, Cambridge North Station and a selection of local amenities.

Impressive accommodation arranged over two extensive floors has been designed with flexibility in mind, offering interesting spaces suited for living, home working, hobby space and generous private parking.

The ground floor accommodation comprises a stunning T-shaped reception room with mezzanine landing area above, an inset working fireplace, vaulted ceilings and extensive glazing to allow lots of natural light and views and access to the garden. There is a formal dining room/snug with attractive parquet floor, a large and well-equipped open-plan kitchen/breakfast room, a utility room and an internal home studio. A light and spacious entrance hall and shower room complete the ground floor level.

A wonderful galleried landing provides an additional study space and separates three double bedrooms from the family bathroom suite and principal bedroom area. The principal bedroom has a separate dressing area with built-in wardrobes, a large ensuite bathroom.

Outside, a shared private driveway leads to the property and provides parking for three vehicles. There are two private and mature gardens. The east-facing garden is predominately laid to lawn and provides a high degree of privacy from mature shrubs and trees. There is a useful brick-built studio/office with power and lighting and a patio area. The west-facing garden has a large brick-built store, raised terrace area with seating space and lawn with well-established plants, shrubs and trees.
