This mid-terraced Victorian house has been well cared for and enjoys a quiet and most convenient position, a short walk from bustling Mill Road and a four minute cycle from Cambridge Station. The property is available with the added benefit of no onward chain.

The accommodation briefly comprises an open-plan living/dining room, benefitting from a dual aspect and finished with exposed wooden floors. The kitchen has been fitted with a contemporary range of base and wall mounted units and has various integrated appliances included within the sale. The kitchen has been sympathetically finished with solid oak worktops and there is a side door leading to the garden.

Upstairs are two bedrooms, the master bedroom being particularly spacious and benefitting from the morning sun. The bathroom has been fitted with a modern white suite and includes a shower over the bath, complemented by part tiled walls.

Outside, the front of the property has on street parking. Directly to the rear of the property is a utility room, which has heating, lighting, a sink and plumbing and space for a washing machine and tumble dryer. This room is also suitable as an office if desired. The west-facing rear garden is principally laid to lawn and measures 75ft x 12ft. There is a block paved patio and the garden has been stocked with a variety of shrubs and trees, the whole is enclosed by fencing.

Location

Ainsworth Street is a particularly desirable neighbourhood in the highly regarded Petersfield wards. It is conveniently situated between Sleaford Street and Hooper Street, around a mile east of the city centre with its combination of ancient and modern buildings, winding lanes, excellent choice of schools and wide range of shopping facilities.

The property is a 14 minute walk from Cambridge Railway Station with direct links to London. Mill Road, The Grafton, Beehive Shopping Centres and Cambridge Retail Park are also a short walk away. The city centre is reached by foot in just 20 minutes.

Schooling is excellent and the area falls within the catchment of St Matthew's Primary School, secondary provision is at Parkside Community College both of which are Ofsted rated as 'outstanding'.
