9 City Road has been extended, remodelled and significantly improved to create a highly individual interior design, which provides the perfect crossover of contemporary, functional living with all the charm and character of a fine period home.

This broad terrace home occupies a prime central location and provides impressive connecting living spaces, which cleverly blend attractive period features with contemporary interior design. The accommodation enjoys a high degree of natural light and provides excellent storage solutions including a large cellar and converted loft space.

The accommodation comprises a semi open-plan ground floor level, which incorporates a sitting area with large sash window and shutters, dining area with bespoke cabinetry and a hand-made, low-level kitchen with solid wood working surfaces, breakfast bar and space for a range of freestanding appliances. Feature panelled doors conceal useful storage and access to the cellar. Access to the terrace is from the kitchen.

The first-floor level comprises an impressive landing area, which leads to a family bathroom suite, extended principal bedroom with an ensuite shower room and two further spacious bedrooms.

Outside, a private walled garden with large terrace area with a pergola over, benefits from good sun coverage, a well-constructed and fully insulated working studio with power, lighting and good broadband connection. There is rear pedestrian access leading to Paradise Street.

Agent's Note

The property is situated in the Kite conservation area.

Location
