There are three reception rooms including a study and a dining room, which benefits from a dual aspect and views over the private rear garden. The living room is finished with exposed wood flooring and has a feature fireplace, contrasted by attractive tiled inserts. Of particular note is the property's impressive kitchen, which has been well designed with a comprehensive range of units and finished with Ivet & Reed granite worktops. Integrated appliances include a double oven and an induction hob with an extractor over. Completing the ground floor accommodation is a cloakroom W.C.

Upstairs are four bedrooms, all of which are comfortable doubles. The principal bedroom is particularly spacious and includes an ensuite shower room. The family bathroom has an airing cupboard and a separate bath and shower, coupled with his-and-hers wash hand basins.

Outside, the front of the property has on street parking and there is also access to a single garage located en-bloc just a short walk from the property. The front of the property overlooks a well-tended communal green with a seating area. The house sits behind an established open-plan garden, partially enclosed by picket fencing and with a pathway to the main entrance. A side gate leads to the property's wonderful rear garden which has been well manicured and benefits from sunshine throughout the day. There is a useful storage shed and a terrace, well suited to alfresco dining. The remainder is laid to lawn and bordered with raised herbaceous beds and a number of trees including a plum tree which produces a bountiful crop. The whole is enclosed by fencing.
