- Well-equipped modern kitchen with marble worktops

This attractive Victorian town house on Auckland Road occupies a privileged location yards from Midsummer Common and a short walk to the main shopping area and numerous cafés, public houses and restaurants. The property has been significantly improved and extended to provide additional ground floor space and a loft conversion.

An attractive entrance hall with oak flooring leads to a refitted modern kitchen with a range of matching units and drawers, marble working surfaces with matching upstands and a range of integrated appliances, which include an oven, hob with an extractor fan, fridge/freezer and a dishwasher. From the hallway is a light and open reception room with a dining area and sitting area with bifold doors opening to the garden. A cloakroom completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to an impressive bathroom suite with a separate shower cubicle and two spacious double bedrooms. Bedroom one provides triple built-in wardrobes. Bedroom two has a vaulted ceiling, dual aspects and a stunning, newly fitted gable window. A staircase leads to the second-floor double bedroom.

The walled rear garden is fully enclosed, provides a high degree of privacy and a west-facing aspect. This lovely outside area is predominately laid to paving with raised beds. There is pedestrian access for bicycles and bins.

Location

Auckland Road is a quiet road situated just off Maids Causeway/Newmarket Road and gives very easy access to Midsummer Common, Jesus Green and the river. The city centre is about 10 minutes walk away and there are an excellent range of local facilities nearby including the Grafton Centre and numerous shops and restaurants on Fitzroy Street. The property is within catchment of the excellent St Matthew's Primary School (OFSTED rated outstanding).
