This attractive Victorian townhouse on Clarendon Street provides well-proportioned accommodation extending to 1312 sqft over three versatile floors. The property requires a full and extensive renovation programme to create a fine period home positioned moments from the historic centre and excellent schools.

The property is set behind attractive wrought iron railings with steps leading down to the lower ground floor level. The entrance door opens to a long reception hall, which provides access to a generous dual aspect reception room (formerly two rooms) and a rear lobby leading to a bathroom with a separate shower cubicle and WC. Access to the rear garden is from this area.

A staircase leads to the lower ground floor, which provides a WC, a basic kitchen in need of modernisation and a large dining room with access to the street above.

The first-floor landing provides a built-in double storage cupboard and leads to three bedrooms. Bedrooms one and two are double bedrooms and offer built-in storage.

Outside, a south-east facing rear garden is fully enclosed and provides a paved patio area and lawn with established borders of various plants and shrubs. There is a useful timber storage shed.

This centrally located period town house in the Kite area of the city offers excellent scope for improvement and benefits from being sold with no onward chain.

Location

Clarendon Street, which forms part of a conservation area, is a well situated no through road lying very close to Parker's Piece, Christ's Pieces and the Grafton Centre within walking and cycling distance of the city centre and many of the facilities offered by the university. There is a good range of local shopping facilities in the immediate area with wide range of open spaces nearby. Local primary schooling is at St Paul's or Park Street and secondary schooling is at Parkside Community College with private schooling for all age groups in the city.
