2 Lents Way is an exceptional family house located at the end of a peaceful and leafy cul-de-sac in Chesterton.

The property has been significantly improved, creatively extended and thoughtfully remodelled to offer impressive family accommodation over two light-filled floors extending to 1397 sqft. This broad, semi-detached home benefits further from full planning consent for a large rear extension (26/00627/HFUL).

The beautifully appointed accommodation with a superior contemporary finish, enhanced by lots of natural light, comprises a reception hall, utility room/study with an ensuite shower room, a bright and spacious sitting room with parquet flooring, which wraps around into a play area and dining space with conservatory off. A large, well-equipped and stylish modern kitchen offers an extensive range of matching cabinetry and drawers, ample working surfaces and a range of integrated appliances and benefits from a Quooker hot tap. There is separate access to the garden from the kitchen/dining area.

Upstairs, a spacious central landing leads to four spacious bedrooms and a refitted family bathroom suite with underfloor heating.

Outside, the property is set behind established frontage, which provides screening from the road and off-street parking.

Gated side access leads to a generous and mature rear garden with patio area and lawn with established trees and shrubs set to borders.

Location
