32 Victoria Park is an attractive bay-fronted semi-detached Victorian house which has been sympathetically extended to provide impressive family accommodation over three floors, retaining lots of character and charming original features.

This lovely period home occupies a privileged position within this desirable cul-de-sac with an established central green, popular with families and is within easy reach of Mitcham's Corner, Jesus Green and the river. Excellent schools for all ages are also close by.

The accommodation comprises a reception hall with an original decorative tiled floor, connecting reception rooms with a broad bay window overlooking the front aspect, two impressive fireplaces and original wooden floors. An extended, open plan kitchen/dining room provides access to and views to the garden through a feature corner window. The kitchen is well-equipped and offers an extensive range of solid wood cabinetry and drawers, working surfaces and spaces for a range of freestanding appliances. A cloak/boot room and WC complete the ground floor level.

Upstairs, the first floor comprises a landing area leading to a study space/dressing area, modern family bathroom suite and three spacious bedrooms. Both double bedrooms retain original fireplaces and wood floors.

The second-floor principal bedroom suite provides an en suite shower room, space for a sitting area and ample concealed storage space.

Outside, there is a mature front garden and shared side access which leads to the rear garden. The rear garden is beautifully designed with established plants, shrubs and provides two private seating areas, two garden ponds, a bicycle store and timber shed.
