Extensive accommodation with a flexible layout is arranged over spacious light-filled floors, all enjoying high ceilings, tall feature windows and underfloor heating. The finish throughout is of an exceptional quality with a Scandinavian themed interior design with lovely individual details and a stunning ground floor extension with a bespoke structural glass roof and bi-fold aluminium doors, which extends this principal living/dining space and cleverly connects the inside to the garden and sky.

A covered porch area with a light tunnel provides sheltered access to the impressive reception hall with attractive oak flooring, which continues throughout this level. Access to the integral garage (currently set up as a gym) and WC is via this hallway. The well-proportioned dining area provides two openings, one to the kitchen/breakfast room area and one to the glass roofed family area with access to the courtyard garden. The kitchen provides an extensive range of sleek handleless units with a range of integrated appliances. A large central island with inset double ovens, wine cooler and informal seating space, cleverly divides the kitchen and sitting area.

The wide first and second floor landings provide ample built-in storage and lead to a generous living room, a guest room with an ensuite shower room, an impressive family bathroom and two further spacious double bedrooms. The impressive third floor master bedroom suite provides a spacious ensuite bathroom with a separate shower cubicle, built-in wardrobes, a private terrace area and additional balcony. All the bedrooms and living spaces have dimmer switches.

Outside, the property is accessed via a long driveway with tall hedging to both sides providing parking for two vehicles. A secure bicycle store and storage cupboard adjoin the porch. The rear courtyard garden is landscaped and provides a private outside area which connects to the principal reception room.
