This superb end-of-terrace house dates back to 1929 and has been extended and significantly improved in recent years. The property offers spacious and versatile accommodation including an extended, open-plan living space and a ground floor bedroom with an adjoining shower room. The property is located to the northeast of the city centre, a short distance from Cambridge North railway station, the Science Park and a range of amenities.

The ground floor accommodation includes an enclosed entrance hall, which leads to the excellent, open-plan living accommodation. There is a sitting room to the front with store cupboard, and a dining area to the rear, which has a vaulted ceiling with Velux windows and patio doors providing views of and access to the garden. The well-appointed kitchen features a range of units including an island with an induction hob, integrated double oven and a dishwasher. It leads through to a utility room and a cloakroom with a WC. To the other side of the entrance hall is a playroom/fourth bedroom, which benefits from a stylish adjoining shower room with a walk-in shower, wash basin and a WC.

On the first floor, the landing has a side window and a hatch with a pull-down ladder to the loft space. There are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, which is fitted with a three-piece suite including a wash basin, WC, and a P-shaped bath with a shower over.

Outside, there is gravel driveway to the front, which provides off-road parking for 3+ vehicles. The delightful rear garden is mature, fully enclosed and benefits from a southwesterly aspect. It is predominantly laid to lawn, with well-stocked borders, a side access gate, a timber shed and gravelled and decked areas providing pleasant entertaining spaces.

Location

Kendal Way is located just off Milton Road and is conveniently situated on the north side of the city, within walking distance of Cambridge North railway station, the Science Park and around 1.5 miles from the centre itself. There are a range of shops nearby, with secondary schooling at North Cambridge Academy. The river, Midsummer Common, city centre and many of the other facilities offered by the University can be approached on foot or by bicycle.
