Located on an endearing street, just north of the river in west Chesterton. 23 Albert Street is a charming Victorian house benefitting from a rear extension and remodelled layout. This well-designed home with a stylish interior finish and lots of natural light.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall leading to a ground floor bathroom suite. There is a modern and well-equipped kitchen leading to an impressive open plan sitting/dining room with attractive oak flooring and added glazing, allowing lots of natural light and access to and views of the garden.

Upstairs, a small landing area leads to two spacious bedrooms. Both bedrooms provide built-in storage and there is loft access from the landing area.

Outside, there is a charming and well-established rear garden with a hot tub and a timber storage shed. There is a right of way across the rear of the property, which leads to the road.

This well-maintained home is ideal for first time buyers and is offered for sale with no onward chain.

Agent's Note

There is shared rear access with neighbouring properties leading to the street - The Deed of Variation is currently under legal review between No. 24 and No. 25 Albert Street following building works carried out by both properties in last year. The solicitors are expecting the deed to be agreed in the coming weeks.

Location

Albert Street is a quiet, yet central residential area, conveniently set just off the Chesterton Road opposite Jesus Green and the River Cam, less than a mile away from Cambridge City centre.

The area of Mitcham's Corner has a variety of independent shops, cafés, pubs, a Co-op and even a yoga studio whilst being within easy reach of the larger commercial amenities. It is a very convenient area for work and socialising, as well as being the perfect spot to get away from the hustle and bustle of city life. Transport links are excellent with regular bus services and cycle routes to the city centre. Both Cambridge and Cambridge North Railway Stations are just a couple of miles away from the property.

The property itself is pleasantly positioned on south-western side of the street and has plenty of permit parking available.
