This well-presented, end-of-terrace house was constructed in 1990 and occupies a pleasant, traffic-free location at the end of a cul-de-sac, to the north of the city centre. The property offers light-filled accommodation which is presented in good order, having been updated in recent years.

The ground floor comprises an entrance porch opening into the living room, which has a dual aspect and stairs to the rear leading to the first floor. An archway opens into the kitchen/breakfast room, which has double doors providing views of and access to the rear garden. There are a range of fitted base and wall units with white worktops and tiled splashbacks, spaces for a cooker and a fridge/freezer, plumbing for a washing machine and a wall-mounted boiler.

On the first floor, the landing has a hatch providing access to the loft space. There are two bedrooms, both of which are well-proportioned doubles. Stylishly refitted, the bathroom has a three-piece suite including a panelled bath with a mains waterfall shower over, a wash basin with a vanity unit, a WC with a concealed cistern and a heated towel rail.

Outside, the property benefits from an allocated parking space. There are two gardens, which belong to the property at the front, one being directly in front of the house and the other to the left of the property, adjoining playing fields. Gated access leads to the landscaped rear garden, which is mainly laid to lawn and fully enclosed, with a mature tree, patio seating area and timber shed.

Location

Woodhead Drive is located off Milton Road, to the northeast of the city centre, and is very popular for those looking to be within easy reach of the city centre and north city facilities. It has its own excellent local shopping area including a Co-op supermarket with two large Tesco superstores nearby, off Newmarket Road or in Milton village.

The Cambridge Science Park is less than 1.5 miles away as is Cambridge North train station, which has services into London King's Cross. The river is about a mile's walk through old Chesterton with the neighbouring open spaces of Stourbridge and Midsummer Commons. There are also regular bus services to the centre of Cambridge and Ely.

Nearby primary schools include The Grove Primary School and North Cambridge Academy, the playing fields of which are adjacent to the property.
