

Awelfryn , Llanboidy, SA34 0DD

Offers In The Region Of £450,000

A traditional smallholding with approximately 8 acres of good level grazing land and 1 acre garden, situated in a rural countryside location, near the popular village of Llanboidy. The property boasts an impressive mature garden with large greenhouse, apple orchard, a variety of ornamental trees, hedgerows, colourful plants and productive vegetable garden. There is also a collection of useful outbuildings for general purpose use, plus ample off road car parking space.

Internally the house has lots of charm and character, with ornate tiled flooring, exposed ceiling beams, original panelled doors, fireplaces and much more. There are 3 good size bedrooms plus a box room and bathroom upstairs, whilst downstairs has generous living space with 2 reception rooms, a walk in larder, utility room and farmhouse kitchen. Viewing is a must to appreciate this property and its incredible garden particularly.

Situation

The property is situated within the rolling West Wales countryside, being rural but not isolated, close to the village of Llanboidy in the predominantly agricultural county of Carmarthenshire. The near by town of Whitland is approximately 5 miles distant and offers a good range of shops, schooling, doctors surgery and train station.

Externally

To the front is a low maintenance enclosed gravel garden area and to the side a gated driveway which provides off road car parking space. The outbuildings are found to the side of the driveway. Access is all around the house and leads to the rear, where there is a wonderful large sunny garden bursting with a wide variety of plants, shrubs, fruit bushes and other specimen plants and trees. Pathways continue down the garden to a large apple orchard, holding a varied variety of old fashioned tasty apples. Beyond here is further garden space which has been left idle and gated access leads into the adjoining 8 acre grazing field. Pathways continue to the far side of the garden, under some tall pine trees and lead to yet more garden areas with beech hedging and more specimen trees, like a mini arboretum. In the middle of the garden there is a large modern Greenhouse and seating area.

The Gardens

Outbuildings
