An exciting and rare opportunity to acquire this derelict smallholding with approximately 41 acres of adjoining good quality grazing land, situated in a quiet and private rural setting, with views over rolling countryside in all directions, yet is only a short drive from the town of St Clears and the A40 dual carriageway to Carmarthen. The property comprises a detached farmhouse in need of complete refurbishment, plus an adjoining stone barn ripe for conversion (subject to planning) and a selection of other outbuildings in need of repair. Properties such as this are not commonly found, offering the buyer a wonderful lifestyle opportunity with enormous appeal and potential, set in wonderful country surroundings and extensive land.

Situation

The property is privately situated off a minor no-through country lane, accessed only across one of its fields, in a rural yet convenient location, only 1 mile from the main A40 and 3 miles from the popular town of St Clears, which has a range of shops and services. If heading West on the A40, Narberth, Haverfordwest and the Pembrokeshire coast are within comfortable driving distances, or alternatively if heading East, Carmarthen and the M4 corridor are equally within easy reach.

Description

Llwyncrwn Fach offers a huge amount of potential, being once a moderately sized working smallholding, situated in a glorious countryside position, off the beaten track and set within its own extensive land. As mentioned, the house and buildings require complete refurbishment, but promise to become something quite special when completed.

The Land

Please see the attached boundary plan for identification. The land comprises approximately 41 acres of thereabouts, adjoining the house and buildings. The land has been looked after and farmed, keeping the fields in good condition and providing quality grazing. A moderately large smallholding setup being ideal for livestock and cropping. Current use has been mainly sheep grazing.

The Outbuildings

Next to the house is a lovely traditional stone barn with a pitched slate roof, in need of some attention but offering excellent multi-purpose potential or could be considered for conversion subject to planning. Other corrugated buildings and smaller sheds are situated behind the house, all in need of repair and attention.

Directions

Travelling from Narberth/Whitland to St Clears, along the A40, take the turning signposted "Llangynnin 2 miles". Travel over a small railway bridge and past Glascoed B&B. Continue for a short way and take the next left hand turning signposted Penparc & Llwynrwn. Proceed down this no-through road and the gated entrance to the property is on the left hand side, identified by our JJB Morris Auction sign. Please note, the access to the property is over one of the adjoining fields, with no actual track or driveway. We strictly stipulate that no vehicles attempt to cross this field and that anyone interested should park by the gateway and walk down to the property, ensuring all gates are closed on route, as there are sheep currently grazing the land.
