£750,000

A refurbished and well presented Smallholding of around Four Acres with a Detached Stable Block providing an ideal equestrian opportunity. The accommodation is set across three floors and briefly comprises: Kitchen/Breakfast Room, Dining Room, Living Room with wood burning stove. To the first floor there are Four Bedrooms and a Family Bathroom with a Master Suite to the Second Floor. Externally, the property benefits from Parking, Detached Garage, Gardens and Four Acres of Land with a Detached Stable Block. Viewing highly recommended to appreciate the quality accommodation on offer.

Situation

The property is situated on the outskirts of the traditional country village of Moylegrove and only 10 minutes' walk from Ceibwr Bay, owned by the National Trust, with a small pebbled beach and stream, dramatic rock formations and high cliff-top walks with fantastic views and chances to spot grey seals, dolphins and a variety of birds. The bay is a good setting off point for canoeing and kayaking and the famous coastal path can be easily accessed. There are numerous walks and bridleways around this lovely, unspoilt area, and larger seaside resorts are within easy driving distance, with Poppit Sands 4 miles or so and Newport Sands about 6 miles distant near the mystical Preseli Hills. The stunning town of Cardigan is about a 15 minute drive away and provides a range of local and national shops with fantastic restaurants, cafes and bars. Newcastle Emlyn is only 30 minutes drive away and is a delightful, historic, market town nestled within the stunningly beautiful Teifi Valley which offers an array of independent shops, art and crafts and antique centres. There are also award winning restaurants, cafes and pubs. The larger university town of Carmarthen is around 50 minutes away with Carmarthen easily leading you onto the M4 and beyond.
