73a Queens Road, Haywards Heath, RH16 1EG

Garden apartment within easy reach of Haywards Heath station, with fast links to London, Brighton and Gatwick.

Close to The Broadway, with its cafés, bars, pubs and restaurants.

Converted in 2009, forming part of a small Victorian building with its own private entrance.

Beautiful double bedroom with south-facing bay window, bespoke shutters and fitted storage.

Rare extras including allocated parking, private outside space and no fixed service charge or ground rent.

The Garden Apartment...

Perfectly placed for anyone needing the station, this superbly presented garden apartment is within easy reach of Haywards Heath mainline station, with fast and regular services to London Victoria/London Bridge in around 47 minutes, Brighton in around 20 minutes and Gatwick in around 20 minutes. The Broadway is also nearby, offering one of the town's best selections of cafés, bars, pubs and restaurants, making this a brilliantly convenient home for commuters, first-time buyers or anyone wanting a central lifestyle with everything close to hand.

Converted in 2009, the apartment forms part of a small Victorian building and has the lovely advantage of its own private entrance, giving it a more independent, house-like feel. It is rare to find a home at this level with both allocated parking and private outside space, particularly in such a central position.

The accommodation is beautifully presented and ready to move straight into. The open plan kitchen/living room creates an easy, sociable space for everyday living, with the kitchen featuring wooden worktops, high gloss units, an integrated electric oven and four ring gas hob.

The bedroom is a particular highlight, featuring a stunning south-facing bay window, bespoke shutters and fitted storage. It is a comfortable double room with a bright, elegant feel, while the bathroom is neutrally finished and well presented.

Outside, the private garden space is ideal for a morning coffee, summer drinks or simply having somewhere of your own to sit out in the warmer months. Further benefits include double glazed windows, gas fired underfloor heating and, importantly, no fixed service charge or ground rent, making this a particularly appealing and low-maintenance first home or investment.

The Location...

Queens Road is an established residential road made up largely of Victorian, Edwardian and 1930s homes, perfectly placed for those wanting convenience without being right in the middle of town. Haywards Heath mainline station is within easy reach, providing fast and regular services to London Victoria, London Bridge, Brighton and Gatwick, making this an excellent option for commuters. The town centre is also just under a mile away, offering a wide range of shops and everyday amenities. Nearby, The Broadway provides a great choice of cafés, restaurants, bars and pubs, while Waitrose, Sainsbury's and the Dolphin Leisure Centre are all within easy walking distance. For those travelling by car, the A272 and A23/M23 are easily accessible, giving straightforward routes across Sussex and beyond.
