55 Crosby Street, Darlington, County Durham, DL3 0HD

Sylvadale is a commanding THREE doubled bedroomed detached period property. Dating back to 1896 the home is characterful whilst also enjoying the compliments of modern day styling. All of the accommodation is well proportioned and the space is evident throughout once you step over the doorstep.

The location within the Harrowgate Hill area of Darlington is very convenient and within walking distance to local schools. There are ample shops and several chain store supermarkets close by, a local park and excellent transport links towards the town centre and out towards the A1M both north and south.

The property is a large family home with a cosy feel, light and bright with the sun streaming through the double aspect ground floor rooms. The kitchen and diner area has been upgraded to provide a superb open plan room with a handy utility area to the rear. The lounge is very spacious with a beautiful ornate fireplace at the heart of the room with a log burning stove to cast a cosy glow.

The staircase with its original balustrade and stunning stained glass window is a feature within itself and leads to the first floor and the three double bedrooms and family bathroom/WC. Externally the front of the property is block paved to allow for ample off street parking. To the rear there is a lawned garden which edges a paved patio terrace and has mature plants and trees to the borders. The south facing garden is flooded with sunshine and the abundance of flowering plants, with shrubs and fruit trees adding colour and interest throughout the seasons. A large garage which measures (19'04 x 14'05) has light and power and a large driveway allows for further secure off street parking to the rear of the property.

Warmed by gas central heating and being fully double glazed viewing is highly encouraged to appreciate the character, size and space of the home.
