Rushpool Cottage Hurworth Moor, Darlington, County Durham, DL2 1QL

Rushpool Cottage is a THREE BEDROOMED detached residence situated at Hurworth Moor between the market town of Darlington and the Villages of Hurworth and Neasham. The property itself is unique and sits behind double gates making it very private offering ample driveway and boasting delightful gardens with huge potential to extend to the side and also make use of the sizable attic if the relevant permission was obtained. The accommodation has been well planned and is generous offering a luxurious finish. To the ground floor there is a superb kitchen/dining space which is perfect for socialising with friends and family, with the addition of a garden room, handy utility and ground floor cloaks/WC. The formal lounge is to the front of the property and is well proportioned. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and a refitted bathroom/WC. In addition to the ample parking. The property boasts a larger than average garage which measures 23'11 x 11'05 and has light and power and there are further stables/outbuilding, the vendor also has available drawings for a proposed development featuring a log cabin, which maybe of interest.

Warmed by oil central heating and being fully double glazed. The property needs to be viewed to fully appreciate the accommodation and the potential that is on offer. The area is popular for a host of buyers having access to excellent local schools for families.
