AVAILABLE WITH NO ONWARD CHAIN

The facade of this property appears to be a country cottage nestling to the corner of Hurworth village green. Once inside however, the feel is that of a grand town house, with high ceilings and generous accommodation across four floors. Dating back to 1850, you can see and feel the history of the property in the original balustrade staircase, exquisite ceiling rose and cellar rooms which blend seamlessly with a stunning, modern kitchen and other upgrades of the home.

Occupying the desired position on the village green, No.57 has been a much loved home for a number of years and upon viewing you cannot fail to understand why. There is space to spare for a growing family, large private garden with the potential to extend further to side if required (and should relevant permissions be granted). Well regarded schools are within easy access, a host of pubs and restaurants and not forgetting the 5 star hotel & spa at Rockcliffe is not to far away with a golf club, gym and spa. There are also many country and river walks to explore, the village of Hurworth is hugely popular.

The property is warmed by Gas Central Heating and has double glazed in keeping with the original style of the period as the property is within a conservation area.
