5, Halls Yard Church Street, Whitby, YO22 4AG

Having undergone an extensive refurbishment programme which blends modern styling seamlessly with the charm of the original stone built cottage. Rose Cottage occupies an elevated position within Whitby's Church Road and enjoys stunning views across the marina. Accessed via stone steps the main amenities of the this popular fishing village are all within walking distance making this an ideal and convenient spot.

The accommodation is set over three floors with spiral staircases with solid oak steps. All of the internal doors are solid oak too and there is quality flooring throughout. The decor is neutral and the immaculate presentation showcases the space on offer. A family bathroom with Villeroy & Boch sanitary ware services bedroom two, whilst the master suite on the second floor enjoys envious views and en-suite facilities. The ground floor space is open plan kitchen, dining and living with a stable door accessing the Indian sandstone patio courtyard.

Real attention to detail has been given to the design and finish of the accommodation. From arriving at the property the kerb appeal is evident with the chrome and glass balustrade to the Indian sandstone staircase and patio. External coloured lighting is available to add ambience of an evening and there is access to a further undeveloped area of land that offers potential to improve (subject to all relevant planning permission any building regulations being satisfied).

Whitby is steeped in history and character and is hugely popular with a host of visitors at all times of the year. This property would suit a homeowner or those looking for a holiday home or investment opportunity. The town is easily accessed by road and has it's own railway station too. The property is warmed by gas central heating and is fully double glazed it is also available with no onward chain.
