AGENTS NOTE:

As any viewer will see the land to the side of this property has been granted permission for residential development, with construction already underway. PLEASE NOTE: this does not effect the plot size in anyway, only the outlook to the side aspect. However, we understand that to the immediate side of the property the developer will be leaving what we assume will be a small, landscaped greensward (classed as "open space"). All of this has already been reflected in the price.
