The area offers a range of local shops and independent cafes along Prestonville Road and Dyke Road, while Brighton city centre, North Laine, and the seafront are all easily reachable by bus, bike, or car. Brighton Station is under 10 minutes away on foot, providing fast, direct trains to London and other major destinations, with the A23/A27 also close by for drivers.

Families are especially drawn to the area due to its inclusion in the catchment for several highly regarded schools, including Stanford Infant and Junior Schools, St. Paul's CE Primary, Dorothy Stringer, and Varndean, with excellent private options such as Brighton College and Windlesham School also nearby.
