A well-presented, light-filled flat is available to rent in Wick Hall, a sought-after 1930s Art Deco building in central Hove.

The flat enjoys sea views from every room and features a south-facing balcony with stunning views of the coast and Brighton's i360.

Classic features combined with modern updates, including a fitted kitchen with a dishwasher, washing machine, fridge freezer, and integrated Neff oven.

The bathroom is contemporary, with a mains-fed thermostatic shower and built-in storage.

Set in spacious, well-kept communal gardens, the property offers a peaceful setting just moments from the seafront.

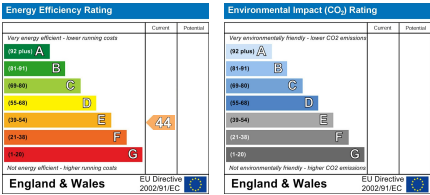

A long entrance hall runs the length of the flat, giving each room a south-facing aspect and plenty of natural light.

The main bedroom has built-in storage, while the second bedroom is generously sized, ideal for a double bed or home office.

A good size living room opening onto the balcony, perfect for enjoying the views and with space for outdoor seating.

Heating is included in the rent

The property is available for occupation from first week of October.
