

Cambridge Grove

Hove, BN3 3ED

Guide price £775,000

This beautifully restored, four-bedroom mews house is located in the highly desirable cobbled mews of central Hove, once home to the stables that served the grand houses of Cromwell Road.

Finished to an impeccable standard, the contemporary colour palette and modern fixtures effortlessly complement the mews' timeless charm and character. Spread across three floors, the expansive open-plan ground floor provides an ideal space for sophisticated entertaining, bathed in natural light from a magnificent skylight. The ground floor also features a refitted kitchen with a central island, integrated appliances, a convenient W.C., and a utility room.

On the first floor, there are three generously sized double bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, and a stylish family bathroom with both a bath and shower serving the remaining two bedrooms. The second floor is home to the stunning 24ft master bedroom, flooded with natural light from multiple windows, and complete with its own en-suite shower, offering the perfect blend of comfort and convenience.

While Cambridge Grove is positioned away from the hustle of central Hove, it remains perfectly connected with it's close proximity to Hove Railway Station. Hove's Lawns and beach, as well as several esteemed schools, are also all within a short distance of the property. A wide range of local amenities, including popular shops, bars, restaurants and coffee shops, can be found along nearby Church Road.

Outside, there is patio area and a residents parking permit is available for parking. The property is being sold with no chain.

