Hove, BN3 5HJ

Offers in excess of £775,000

Introducing this exceptional four-bedroom, two-bathroom extended home in the heart of Poets Corner. A beautifully and thoughtfully refurbished property that perfectly blends period charm with contemporary living.

Boasting wonderful curb appeal, featuring classic wrought-iron railings and a charming Victorian tiled pathway, upon entering this impeccably presented mid-terraced house, you're welcomed into a spacious open-plan living and dining area, complete with a striking limestone fireplace — an ideal setting for both relaxing and entertaining. At the rear, the elegant Neptune-designed kitchen showcases outstanding craftsmanship, high-end integrated appliances, and a seamless connection to the garden through classic French doors.

Upstairs on the first floor, you'll find three generously sized double bedrooms alongside a sleek, modern shower room. The top floor features a creatively designed L-shaped dormer, offering a large principal bedroom and a luxurious family bathroom, providing both comfort and space.

Outside, the private rear garden offers a stylish retreat with plenty of room for outdoor dining and enjoying sunny days — perfect for those who love al fresco living.

Stoneham Road is situated in the vibrant and highly sought-after Poets Corner area of Hove, known for its community spirit and array of local amenities. Just a short stroll away are an excellent selection of cafes, coffee shops, gastro pubs, and restaurants. The property is also within close proximity to several outstanding local schools and benefits from easy access to Aldrington and Hove railway station making trips to London, Gatwick and Brighton city centre very easy and ensuring the property is suitable for families and commuters alike.
