

114 Saxon Leas, Winterslow, Salisbury, Wiltshire, SP5 1RW

£270,000 Freehold

A well presented three bedroom end of terrace house situated in an off-road cul-de-sac location and benefiting from front and rear gardens, PVCU double glazing, oil fired central heating and a single garage.

Directions

Leave Salisbury along the A30 London Road and after approximately 4 miles turn right towards Winterslow. Upon entering the village continue into Middleton Road before turning left into Saxon Leas. Turn left into a further part of Saxon Leas, following the crescent around and the property can be found at the far end.

Description

The property is a staggered three bedroom end of terrace house (in a small terrace of four similar properties) located at the end of a residential cul-de-sac in an off-road location. The property is presented in good order throughout and comprises an entrance porch which leads to a dining room. An archway leads through to a kitchen which has an excellent range of units with an integrated oven and hob and both these areas have electric underfloor heating. Leading from the dining room is a sitting room which has a wood-burner and sliding doors leading out onto the garden. On the first floor are three bedrooms (two doubles) and a family bathroom with a white suite. Externally there is an area of front garden and the rear garden has a westerly aspect. Further benefits include PVCU double glazing throughout, oil fired central heating and a single garage in a nearby block. The village itself offers a wide range of amenities including a good primary school, local shop, village hall and public house. The village itself offers good access onto the A30 London Road.
