Guide Price £695,000 Freehold

About The Property

Situated on a corner plot with driveway parking for two cars and an integral double garage, this well-proportioned detached home offers excellent family accommodation within a popular residential road in the sought-after village of Ford, to the north of Salisbury.

The property is offered with no onward chain.

The property has been well maintained and benefits from uPVC fascias and soffits, double-glazed windows and doors, and gas-fired central heating via radiators.

The house is approached via a brick paviour driveway leading to the front door which opens into a spacious hallway with stairs to first floor with cupboard below. There is a downstairs cloakroom, double aspect sitting room with fireplace and French doors to garden, dining room, study, kitchen with an excellent range of cupboards and work surfaces with built in appliances and island, and finally on the ground floor is a useful utility room with sink, work surfaces, cupboards, door to garden and wall mounted gas boiler for central heating and hot water. On the first floor there is a spacious master bedroom with excellent built-in wardrobes and en-suite bathroom together with four further double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside to the front is parking for two vehicles with small area of lawn and shrubs. Pedestrian access leads through to the garden which lies to south and east and is enclosed by beautiful part tile hung and capped walling, fencing and hedging. A brick paviour path leads from the front to a paved patio, lawns with well maintained and mature flower beds and shrubs. There is a summer house on the south side.

Ford is a popular village offering convenient access to Salisbury, which lies approximately 2 miles away. It also provides excellent access to the A30 London Road, nearby primary, secondary and Grammar schools, and excellent dog walking at Castle Hill Country Park, as well as a Co-op supermarket at Old Sarum.
