About The Property

A fully renovated three-bedroom semi-detached house located within walking distance of the city center. The property has recently undergone complete redecoration, with all carpets replaced.

The property comprises of a small porch leading into the entrance hallway. To the right is a cozy sitting area at the front of the house, which leads into a side hallway containing a downstairs WC and a door that opens to the rear garden.

At the back of the ground floor is a spacious open-plan kitchen and dining area featuring a high-spec kitchen with solid countertops. It includes a large range cooker with a ceramic hob and a central island. The kitchen is also enhanced by bifold double-glazed doors that overlook the garden.

The upstairs accommodation consists of three generously sized double bedrooms, two of which include built-in wardrobes. There is a large family bathroom equipped with a full-sized bath and shower.

The rear garden is a generous space, featuring a large patio area accessible from the kitchen, artificial lawn, and good-sized borders at the back. Additionally, there is a sizable garden studio that includes power and lighting. This studio has been fully redecorated and features large double-glazed bifold doors, making it an ideal home office.

At the front of the property, there is off-street parking with space for two cars, as well as a half-sized garage for additional storage.

The property is offered part-furnished on a long-term basis and includes gas central heating.
