

34 St. Marys Avenue, Rushden NN10 9EP

£350,000

Wow!! are you looking for something unique? are you looking for a large garden? vegetable garden or a large children's play area? a property with versatile accommodation? If so then you need to view this three/four bedroom detached house that offers so much. The property boasts many quality features, too many to list but includes a luxury bathroom, double glazing, gas central heating, many stripped and varnished wooden floors and is very well presented throughout. The accommodation offers a porch, large reception hall with open tread staircase to the first floor, a good size lounge that offers wonderful views over the garden, a separate dining room/bedroom four, kitchen, wc, landing, three good size bedrooms, luxurious bathroom plus a separate shower room, driveway and a garage. The most unique feature of this property has to be the garden. It is accessed from a raised patio via steps that lead to an Oriental themed landscaped area that features a running stream through mature borders with specimen shrubs and trees which is truly delightful. There is useful storage under the raised patio. The bottom half of the garden is set out for an allotment style substantial vegetable plot/cottage garden with greenhouse but this area could be transformed into whatever is required such as laid to lawn, landscaping, or the location for a home office/workshop/log cabin etc. The whole garden is totally private and not overlooked.

Located just a 150 yards from the 34 acres of Hall Park that provides a wonderful community open space that includes two dedicated dog walking fields. Rushden Lakes shopping centre is a few drive as is the A6 and A45

This property and its gardens must be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Agents note:- the rear garden is accessed down via a flight of 8 steps from the patio and therefore may not be suitable for those with mobility issues or very young children. It would be sensible to check with the agents first should you want further clarification
