About The Property

Looking for a spacious three-bedroom detached bungalow with plenty of parking, a garage and scope to make it a home of its own? With three double bedrooms, a generous kitchen/diner, sun room, manageable gardens and a village shop directly opposite, this Blaenffos property offers plenty of space alongside the opportunity for further updating.

Set back from the road behind a broad tarmac driveway, the property has ample off-road parking for approximately three to four cars, with the driveway continuing around the side to a detached single garage. Mature planted borders soften the frontage, with a low wall forming the front boundary and further walling and established hedging around the side and rear.

The bungalow offers a good amount of internal space, with a layout that provides clearly defined living and sleeping areas. Although some modernisation and updating would now be beneficial, there is plenty here to work with and the proportions of the rooms provide a good starting point for creating a comfortable home.

The entrance opens into a hallway with an attractive feature stone arch adding a little character. From here, the accommodation branches off towards the main living areas and bedrooms.

At the heart of the home is the particularly spacious kitchen/diner, measuring approximately 6.26m x 3.05m. There is a range of fitted wall and base units with work surfaces over, a sink positioned beneath the window and space for a freestanding electric cooker. The length and proportions of the room allow plenty of space for a dining table alongside the kitchen area, while windows to more than one aspect bring in good natural light.

A useful utility room sits alongside, fitted with further work surfaces and a sink, with space and plumbing for a washing machine. The oil-fired boiler is also housed here, keeping the practical workings of the home separate from the main kitchen. A WC is positioned close by.

Details Continued:

The lounge is another generously proportioned room, measuring approximately 6.04m x 4.25m. A stone fireplace and matching stone detailing provide a focal point and could lend themselves well to being incorporated into a future decorative update.

From the lounge, a door leads through to the sun room. This is a lovely addition to the accommodation, with a vaulted ceiling, exposed timber beams and windows across several sides. French doors open directly onto the block-paved area outside, providing an easy connection between the house and garden. With its good natural light and outlook, this room could work equally well as a second sitting room, reading room or informal dining space.

There are three double bedrooms, giving the bungalow a particularly useful layout. Bedroom one and bedroom two both benefit from built-in single wardrobes, while bedroom three is another well-proportioned double. The arrangement provides flexibility for anyone needing a home office, hobby room or guest accommodation without sacrificing the main living areas.

The main shower room has been more recently updated and is fitted as a modern wet room, with a walk-in shower area and fold-down shower seat, WC and wash hand basin. There is also a separate additional shower room further down the hall, next to bedroom 3.

Externally:

Outside, the gardens have been designed with relatively straightforward maintenance in mind. Mature borders to the front and side provide established planting, while the predominantly hard-surfaced areas around the bungalow offer plenty of practical outside space without the upkeep associated with extensive lawns. A block-paved area sits to the front and side of the sun room and provides a useful spot for outdoor seating.

The detached single garage has an up-and-over door together with power and lighting, making it useful for secure parking, storage or workshop space. The extensive tarmac driveway provides further parking for approximately three to four vehicles.

The property benefits from oil-fired central heating and, while some areas would benefit from modernisation, the overall size and layout make this a bungalow with considerable potential. Updating the kitchen, décor and finishes could make a noticeable difference while retaining the generous room sizes and practical single-storey arrangement already in place.

With three double bedrooms, two reception areas, a spacious kitchen/diner, utility room, detached garage and good off-road parking, this is a well-proportioned bungalow with plenty of practical features already in place. Its scope for further updating should particularly appeal to buyers looking for a home where improvements can be made gradually and tailored to personal taste.
