About The Property

Looking for a well-positioned semi-detached bungalow in a sought-after Cardigan cul-de-sac, close to town amenities and everyday conveniences? This two-bedroom home offers off-road parking, a kitchen/diner with French doors to the garden, and easy single-level living near the coastline of Cardigan Bay in West Wales.

Set within a sought-after cul-de-sac in the popular market town of Cardigan, this well-presented semi-detached bungalow offers comfortable, easy-to-manage accommodation all on one level, with the added benefit of off-road parking and a fully enclosed rear garden. Its position close to everyday town amenities makes it a practical choice, while the layout and outdoor space give it broad appeal.

The front door opens into a central hallway, which provides access to all rooms and includes a useful airing cupboard housing the mains gas-fired combi boiler. This simple, straightforward layout works particularly well for bungalow living and keeps the space feeling well organised.

To the front of the property is the lounge, a bright and welcoming room with a feature fireplace and electric fire in situ, offering a comfortable focal point and plenty of scope to personalise. The kitchen/diner sits to the rear and is fitted with matching wall and base units, along with an integral dishwasher, fridge freezer and washing machine. There is space for dining, making it a sociable, functional room, and French doors open directly out to the rear garden, linking indoor and outdoor space nicely.

There are two bedrooms, both well proportioned for a property of this type. The front bedroom would suit use as a generous single or small double, while the rear bedroom is a good-sized double overlooking the garden. The bathroom is fitted with a toilet, wash hand basin and a level double shower, offering a practical, accessible layout.

Externally:

Outside, the front garden is designed for ease of maintenance, laid mainly to gravel with established shrubs and a path leading to the front door. A block-paved driveway to the side provides off-road parking for around three vehicles and leads through a gated access into the rear garden. The rear garden is fully enclosed and mostly lawned, with patio areas and pathways running along the back of the bungalow. Mature borders soften the space, with roses planted along the rear fence, and there is a useful timber garden shed for storage.

Overall, this is a well-located bungalow that combines practical accommodation, manageable outdoor space and a convenient town setting – ideal for those seeking single-storey living in one of West Wales' most popular market towns. Early viewing is recommended to appreciate the position and layout on offer.
