About The Property

Looking for a home with flexible living space and beautifully landscaped gardens? This property offers well-presented interiors, two double bedrooms, a garage, and a garden with a greenhouse, a summer house, and multiple small workshops

This well-cared-for home offers a practical and flexible layout, with a balance of modern touches and comfortable living spaces. The kitchen is light and functional, fitted with wall and base units, a 1.5 drainer sink, space for a gas oven and hob, and plumbing for white goods. Two windows and a part-glazed door bring in natural light, making this a pleasant and workable area at the heart of the home.

The dining room, with oak flooring, built-in cupboards, and an LPG fire with stone and tiled surround, is a versatile space that can serve both as a family dining area and an additional living space. From here, the lounge provides a cosy setting, with a feature stone fireplace, fitted media unit, and an electric fire, making it ideal for relaxed evenings.

A central hallway links the accommodation together and leads to two double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes, along with a side porch that has been used as a home office or hobby room. The modern shower room includes a walk-in shower, vanity wash basin, WC, towel radiator, and tiled flooring.

Externally, the property has a great range of outbuildings. These include a garage with an electric door, two small workshops with power and lighting, a boiler room/store, and a separate WC, offering excellent storage and workspace options. The garden provides lawn, patio seating areas, pathways, mature planting, a greenhouse, and even a summer house. At the front, there is a tarmac driveway and a patio area for parking and easy access.

This is a home that combines comfortable interiors with excellent external features, set within West Wales where Cardigan Bay and its coastal charm are never far away.
