About The Property

Looking for a versatile 5-bedroom detached bungalow with endless possibilities? Boasting two en-suites, a L shape kitchen-diner, a spacious living room with a wood-burning stove, and a flexible outbuilding, this property combines comfort, practicality, and potential in a desirable village setting.

This five-bedroom detached bungalow offers a mix of practicality and flexibility, making it a property full of potential for its next owner. The layout has been designed to combine spacious living areas with functional spaces for daily life or entertaining.

The living room, complete with a wood-burning stove, creates a comfortable space at the heart of the home. From here, the open-plan kitchen-diner is easily accessible, providing plenty of room for a dining table and fitted with modern appliances. Sliding patio doors open onto the front terrace, a perfect spot to enjoy the morning sunlight and take in views over the front lawned area.

The kitchen is also connected to an inner hallway that leads to a utility room with additional storage space and to the newly installed sunroom. This bright and practical addition to the property includes patio doors leading directly into the rear garden.

The bedrooms are all double-size rooms positioned to offer flexibility, with two featuring en-suite bathrooms alongside a separate family bathroom. This layout makes it well-suited to families or anyone looking to accommodate guests.

Continued;

The integrated garage comes equipped with an inspection pit and an electric vehicle charging point, making it practical for car enthusiasts or those looking for sustainable transport options. The rear garden offers a mix of functional and relaxed outdoor spaces, including lawned areas bordered by mature shrubs, a patio ready for a hot tub, and a tucked-away raised seating area ideal for enjoying the afternoon and evening sunlight.

Adding even more flexibility is the substantial 500 sq. ft. outbuilding. The owners thinks that this may have originally been a swimming pool, it's now used as a games room but could be restored or reimagined for a range of purposes, from a workshop to a home office. The garden sheds offer further storage, rounding out the practical outdoor amenities.

Set within a village this is a unique property offering versatility and potential for its next owners. Viewings are recommended to appreciate all it has to offer.
