About The Property

Chain Free – A character traditional 3-bedroom semi-detached cottage, sitting within a generous-sized plot with ample off-road parking to the front, sweeping gardens, and a patio to the side and rear of the cottage. All situated in a popular hamlet location on the outskirts of the top end of Cardigan town, and all its amenities such as supermarkets, shops, cafes, restaurants, schools, and so much more, and within easy driving distance of the west Wales coast of Cardigan Bay and its many pretty, sandy beaches.

Access to the property via a canopied entrance into the hallway with an archway accessing the kitchen, stairs to the first floor, and a door off to the lounge. The kitchen has a range of base and wall units, tiled flooring, a stainless steel sink with a drainer, and a freestanding electric oven, situated within the inglenook-style fireplace with a wooden beam and exposed brick walls is a Rayern Royal Range. the window is located at the front of the property with a handy storage cupboard under the window. The lounge is also located to the front of the cottage and has a bay window with a window seat below and an inglenook fireplace with a substantial wooden beam above, exposed slate/stone walls, and a quarry tile hearth on which the multi-fuel stove is located, there is also a door that leads you through the inner hallway to the rear living room, this room had a window that overlooks the rear garden/patio area and a door to the utility room. The utility room has a door off to a walk-in pantry, access to the potential shower room, and a door to access outside, there is space and plumbing for a washing machine, and windows along the rear wall, making this a light room.

The first-floor landing is split into two levels, the wet room is located on one level, with an electric shower, wash hand basin, a w/c, and Velux window situated in the sloping ceiling, on this level there is also a handy storage cupboard.

Offers in the region of £250,000

Details Contined;

The 3 double bedrooms are all located on the top level, bedroom one benefits from a build in storage cupboard, and a window overlooking the front, and bedroom two which is also a double also has a window to the front of the property, bedroom three is located at the rear and has two Velux windows in the sloping roof as there is some restricted head space in this room. Also on the top landing, there is a very useful walk-in dressing room/storage room with built-in shelving and a loft hatch.

Externally;

As you approach this cottage there is ample parking areas to the front, the lawn garden to the side is elevated in places but does have level areas as well, and the corner of the entrance still has an old mill grinding stone placed in the garden as a stone feature, there is an open water drain which flows through a culvert through the garden into the stream at the back of the property, the previous owner has fashioned a fish pond to take the overflow of water, this could be restored to its former glory with a bit of work, also in the garden is a concrete seating area, exposed bedrock, and to the rear is a concrete patio area, an old wooden shed, and a useful storage shed in which the oil fired boiler is housed. the rear of the garden is bounded by te Mwldan stream, some fencing is required to make this a safer area.

A great opportunity to purchase a traditional stone cottage in need of some modernization in a popular edge-of-town location.
