About The Property

Looking for a well-priced first home or investment opportunity near the coast, with scope to improve and add value? This two-bedroom semi-detached property in Blaenporth offers a straightforward layout, good garden space and easy access to Cardigan Bay and the wider West Wales coastline.

Set within the village of Blaenannerch, just a short drive from the coast at Aberporth and the wider appeal of Cardigan Bay in West Wales, this two bedroom semi-detached ex-local authority property offers a practical layout and a clear opportunity for improvement.

The property is approached on foot from the roadside, with on-street parking available nearby. Entry is into a small porch area leading through to the main hallway, which connects the principal rooms and provides a straightforward flow through the home.

The living room sits to the front of the property and is a comfortable, well-proportioned space with a good sized window bringing in natural light. There is room here for both seating and dining if required, making it a flexible main living area.

To the front, the kitchen is fitted with a range of base and wall units, along with space for freestanding appliances. A window above the sink looks out over the front garden, which is always a nice, practical touch. The kitchen itself is functional but would benefit from updating, giving the next owner a chance to redesign and modernise to suit their own style.

The bathroom includes a bath with shower over, wash hand basin and WC. As with the kitchen, it is serviceable but ready for refurbishment.

There are two bedrooms. The main bedroom is a comfortable double with space for freestanding furniture and a pleasant outlook over the rear garden. The second bedroom is smaller but still usable as a single bedroom, nursery or home office, depending on requirements.

Continued

Externally, the rear garden is a real positive. It is a decent size and enclosed, with a mix of grass, shrubs and a few established trees adding character. There is plenty of scope here for landscaping or simply maintaining as a straightforward outdoor space. The front garden is also a practical space and is enclosed

Overall, this is a property that will appeal to buyers looking for a project at an accessible price point. It is not one for anyone wanting a finished home, but for those willing to put in some work, there is clear potential to improve both the condition and value over time.

The location works well too.

Blaenannerch offers a village setting while still being within easy reach of Aberporth's beaches and amenities, along with Cardigan town for a wider range of shops, schools and services. The coastline of Cardigan Bay and everything that makes West Wales so popular is only a short drive away.
