About The Property

This detached home offers a well-thought-out layout, combining space and practicality with stunning wooded views over the Teifi Valley. Situated in an elevated position on the edge of the popular village of Cilgerran, this property is perfect for those looking for a flexible family home close to local amenities and the beautiful West Wales coastline.

The ground floor begins with a long, bright entrance hall, which connects the primary living areas. The living room is a standout space, featuring sliding patio doors that frame the wooded views and fill the room with natural light. A gas fire with an ornate surround adds a cosy focal point, and glazed double doors lead through to a separate dining room, ideal for entertaining.

The kitchen/dining area offers a practical design with plenty of storage, Formica worktops, and integrated appliances, including an Indesit double oven and ceramic hob. A utility room off the kitchen provides additional functionality, with a stainless-steel sink, wall and base units. Completing the ground floor is a shower room, along with a spacious multi-use room that could serve as a study, sitting room, or a fourth bedroom.

Upstairs, the central landing benefits from large sash windows, allowing countryside views and light to fill the space. The principal bedroom is generously proportioned and features fitted wardrobes, bedside cabinets, and a dressing table, with direct access to a Jack-and-Jill-style en-suite bathroom. Two additional double bedrooms, both with dual-aspect windows, provide further comfortable living spaces, with views extending towards Cilgerran Castle from the rear. A family bathroom on this floor includes both a bath and an enclosed shower, offering options to suit busy households.
