About The Property

Nestled on the rugged coastline of Cardigan Bay, boasting some of the most dramatic and spectacular sea views in the area and sitting just north of the picturesque village of Llangrannog, this stunning property offers a unique opportunity for those seeking a property of a lifetime.

Boasting just over 6 acres of land and gardens, no immediate neighbours, being down the end of a long track, a row of three stone barn ranges (ripe for conversion subject to planning permission), the most breathtaking of sea views, 3 reception rooms and 5 bedrooms spread across the property, there is ample space for comfortable living with plenty of possibilities. Conveniently located near Llangrannog, Cwmttydu, New Quay, and the Ceredigion Coastal Path, outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers will find themselves in paradise. Llangrannog is a popular seaside village with its vibrant community, cosy pubs, and beautiful beaches, much loved by locals and tourists alike, while New Quay offers many amenities such as a doctor’s surgery, a large Primary school, a supermarket, a fire station, a lifeboat station (RNLI), pubs, cafes and restaurants and so much more.

Benefitting from underfloor heating on the ground floor, the extensive modernisation and renovation carried out around 14 years ago ensure that the property offers contemporary amenities while retaining its charming character.

The main front door into the property opens into the hallway, with a built-in boot storage box, and doors into the lounge and the kitchen/diner. The dining area has ample space for a dining table and opens out into the modern kitchen, with beautifully fitted matching wall and base units, with an island in the middle with a breakfast bar. Modern NEFF appliances installed include an electric oven with hob and extractor, a waist-level electric oven, a combi microwave oven, a coffee machine, a space for an American-style fridge freezer, and a 1.5 sink with a drainer.

Offers in excess of £900,000

From the kitchen, a door opens into the utility room, with fitted units and sink, space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer, a door out to the rear of the property and a door into the ground floor shower room. Fitted with a double walk-in shower, vanity wash hand basin and toilet unit this shower room is handy for washing off after a day on the beach.

The lounge is a stylish room with a beautiful, contemporary Fire Belly wood-burning stove, perfect for cooler nights, a door into the airing cupboard (which houses the hot water tank and underfloor heating manifolds), stairs to the first floor, and double doors into the sunroom. Arguably the best room of the house for views, with bifold doors opening out onto the decked patio, offering panoramic and spectacular views of the coastline and over to the locally famous Ynys Lochtyn. There is a useful storage room adjacent to the sunroom

On the first-floor landing, doors lead off to three double bedrooms, including the spacious master with en-suite shower room, and the family bathroom featuring a free-standing bath strategically placed to capture breathtaking sea views, luxury and relaxation. On the second floor is a landing area and doors to two further double bedrooms (with some restricted headroom).

Access to the property is down a farm track (which this property has rights of way over), into its own gated driveway and on through to the gravelled front drive. The property, sits on just over 6 acres of land, encompassing two fields, three stone barn ranges – perfect for conversion subject to planning permission, enclosed gardens, and mesmerising panoramic sea views stretching out to Ynys Lochtyn and Llangrannog. The gardens are planted with mature plants and shrubs and an attractive well sits in the front drive. The two fields are stock-fenced and surrounded by mature hedging.

The stone barns are split into three, with ample storage space, or ideal for converting into extra living accommodation subject of course to obtaining the correct planning permissions. There is space to the rear of the barns which could be made into gardens for each unit if needed.

Whether you’re captivated by the sea views, the potential for barn conversions, or the enchantment of the surroundings, this property offers a lifestyle that is as unique as it is inviting.
