About The Property

Looking for a spacious family home with countryside surroundings, distant sea views and easy access to Cardigan Bay? This beautifully presented four-bedroom property in Beulah combines contemporary styling, generous living space and landscaped gardens, all within easy reach of Newcastle Emlyn, Cardigan and the West Wales coastline.

Situated within the rural village of Beulah, this beautifully presented detached home offers a well-balanced mix of modern family living, practical design and attractive outdoor space. Positioned between the market towns of Newcastle Emlyn and Cardigan, the property enjoys easy access to the Cardigan Bay coastline and many of the beaches, coves and coastal walks that make this part of West Wales so popular.

Newcastle Emlyn is around 4.4 miles away and offers a good range of independent shops, cafes, restaurants, supermarkets and schooling for all ages, while Cardigan sits approximately 7.9 miles from the property with its traditional high street, theatre, riverside setting and wider range of amenities. The coastline is also within easy reach, making this an appealing location for those wanting both countryside surroundings and coastal access.

The approach to the property immediately creates a strong first impression, with a sweeping driveway leading through double gates towards the house and integrated double garage. Mature planting, lawns and established shrubs soften the exterior and give the property an attractive, well-maintained appearance.

The accommodation has been thoughtfully designed for modern family life, with the ground floor flowing naturally between the main living spaces. The welcoming entrance hall provides access to the lounge, staircase to the first floor and continues through to the open-plan kitchen and dining area, which forms the heart of the home.

Continued;

The kitchen has been finished to a very good standard with a contemporary style that complements the overall feel of the property. A central island with oak worktop creates both a practical workspace and casual seating area, while Saile Stone worktops continue throughout the remaining kitchen surfaces. Storage has clearly been prioritised, with a range of fitted wall and base units, built-in larders and additional accessible storage spaces helping to keep the room functional as well as stylish.

Integrated appliances include a built-in microwave, plate warmer, eye-level cooker, double oven with grill, dishwasher and wine cooler, alongside a six-ring electric hob. There is also space for a fridge freezer and the kitchen is finished with double Franke sinks adding another practical touch.

lowing directly from the kitchen and dining area is the impressive sunroom. Featuring a vaulted ceiling and extensive glazing, this room makes the most of the surrounding outlook and creates a bright additional reception space suited to dining, relaxing or entertaining. French doors open onto the patio, creating a natural connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces.

Underfloor heating runs throughout the ground floor, adding comfort and helping maintain a clean, uncluttered finish across the living spaces.

The lounge is another standout room within the property, offering generous proportions and a cosy atmosphere. Two sets of double doors connect the room back into the main house, while bi-fold doors open directly onto the rear patio area. A log burner set on a slate hearth with oak beam above provides a focal point and adds character to the room. The lounge is currently carpeted, with wooden flooring beneath.

The ground floor also benefits from a separate W/C and a useful utility room accessed from the kitchen. This room includes a sink and drainer alongside space and plumbing for both a washing machine and tumble dryer. A further door leads directly into the integrated double garage, adding convenience for day-to-day living and secure parking.

The first-floor landing is particularly spacious and features windows overlooking the surrounding countryside. The area lends itself well to use as a reading corner, study area or home office space.

Positioned at the rear of the property, the main bedroom takes full advantage of the distant sea views towards Cardigan Bay. French doors open onto a Juliet balcony with glazed panels, allowing the outlook to become part of the room itself. Built-in wardrobes provide practical storage, while the en-suite bathroom has been fitted with a bath, separate shower, bidet, sink and space for a mirrored vanity unit. Luxury vinyl tiled flooring and modern wall panelling complete the room.

Bedroom two also enjoys distant sea views and benefits from French doors opening onto another Juliet balcony. Double built-in wardrobes provide excellent storage and the room offers generous proportions.

Bedrooms three and four are both located at the front of the property. Each room has some restricted head height to one side, adding character to the upstairs accommodation. Bedroom three benefits from a walk-in wardrobe, while bedroom four includes a built-in cupboard and access to under-eaves storage.

The family shower room has been stylishly fitted with a double shower, W/C, vanity sink unit with storage below and a heated Bluetooth vanity mirror. Luxury vinyl tiled flooring continues the contemporary finish seen elsewhere throughout the property.

Externally;

Externally, the gardens have clearly been carefully planned and maintained. The rear garden provides a lovely setting for outdoor living, with lawns, mature shrubs, trees and planted borders creating colour and interest throughout the seasons. A pond adds another attractive feature and helps give the garden a calm, established feel.

The enclosed patio area provides a sheltered seating space ideal for outdoor dining, while the decked area offers additional room for seating and entertaining during the warmer months. A garden shed provides useful storage for tools and equipment without detracting from the overall appearance of the outside space.

Altogether, this is a very well-rounded home combining modern comforts, practical family accommodation and attractive surroundings in a sought-after part of West Wales. With countryside views, distant glimpses towards Cardigan Bay and convenient access to both market towns and the coast, the property offers a lifestyle that will appeal to a wide range of buyers.

Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the standard of finish, setting and space on offer.
