About The Property

Looking for a detached bungalow within easy reach of Cardigan town, with the added bonus of no forward chain? This two-bedroom property comes with parking, an attached garage, and low-maintenance outdoor spaces to the front, side, and rear.

Set in the residential area of Cnwc-Y-Dintir, this detached two-bedroom bungalow offers straightforward living within half a mile of Cardigan town centre. The location puts most everyday essentials within easy reach — shops, schools, and places of worship are all nearby — making the setting practical without being busy.

From the driveway, there is access to both the garage and the property via a uPVC double-glazed door. Once inside, the kitchen and dining area have been modernised and provide a comfortable and practical working space. The layout includes a range of wall and base units topped with complementary work surfaces. There's a built-in larder cupboard, a pull-out corner unit for easier access to harder-to-reach spots, and an integrated dishwasher. Space has been left for a freestanding fridge, as well as a cooker, and there's plumbing in place for a washing machine. A boiler is also located here. Dual aspect windows give this part of the house a light feel throughout the day, and there's plenty of space for a dining table as well.

The hallway gives access to all the main rooms, the living room sits off to the rear, and it is a good-sized space with a gas fireplace that brings a bit of character. Patio doors with glazed panels on either side allow natural light to come through and also provide direct access to the rear patio area.

Returning to the hall, the sleeping accommodation offers two double bedrooms. The main bedroom features a built-in wardrobe and the second bedroom is also a double.

The shower room has been updated and includes a walk-in shower enclosure, a low-flush WC, and a handwash basin mounted over a storage unit — a practical use of space and a tidy finish overall.

Continued :

Externally, the property offers a mix of areas without the need for intensive upkeep. To the front, a tarmacked driveway provides off-road parking and leads to the sheltered carport area with access to the side door and onto the garage with an up-and-over door. There is a gravelled area in front of the house, while the side and rear are made up mostly of paved surfaces, with an enclosed area ideal for seating accessed from the lounge, and steps down to the rest of the paved garden. This gives some flexibility for outside seating, raised bed or garden furniture without a large maintenance commitment.

The integral garage includes a window to the rear. Whether used for storage, parking or even light workshop use, it's a flexible space that adds value to the overall layout.

All in all, this property presents a solid option for anyone looking to be close to the town without being right in the middle of it. The bungalow offers a sensible layout, manageable outdoor space, and no forward chain — making it a straightforward move for those wanting to avoid the complications of a long property chain.

With a modernised kitchen/diner and shower room, and paved gardens, all add to the practicality. It's the kind of place that would suit those seeking a home they can settle into without the need for immediate works.

With the convenience of its location and its layout, the bungalow ticks a lot of boxes — well-placed living in a part of Cardigan that has long been popular. Whether for downsizing, a first home, or a manageable base near town, this is one that makes sense.
