About The Property

Looking for a spacious home with character, useful outbuildings and generous gardens? This detached property in Beulah offers three bedrooms, two reception rooms and an impressive range of workshops and garages, all within easy reach of the Cardigan Bay coast.

A spacious and immaculately presented three-bedroom detached house set within large grounds in the well-regarded village of Beulah. This well-cared-for home blends comfortable living with practical design and enjoys a range of charming features including painted beams, a wood-burning stove, and a solid-fuel Rayburn stove. With generous gardens, a substantial workshop, a garage, and further outbuildings, this is a property that offers both comfort and versatility in a highly convenient location.

The ground floor is thoughtfully arranged to create a flowing and practical layout. The dining room forms the central hub of the home, with wood-effect tiled flooring, painted beams, and a feature wood burner set on a slate hearth. There is plenty of room for a dining table and a lovely front-facing window that draws in natural light. From here, an opening leads through to the living room, a well-proportioned space with continued tiled flooring, painted beams and another front aspect window giving a pleasant outlook over the front garden. Both reception rooms combine comfort with character, creating a welcoming setting for everyday living.

The kitchen sits towards the rear of the house and is fitted with a good range of wall and base units under worktops. It includes a four-ring induction hob with extractor above, an eye-level double oven and grill, and space for both a dishwasher and washing machine. The solid-fuel Rayburn, used for cooking, adds a traditional feature while complementing the modern fittings. A door opens to a handy pantry fitted with shelving—perfect for storing kitchen essentials—and a further door gives access to the rear garden.

A separate external WC is conveniently located off the kitchen, rounding off the practical layout on the ground floor.

The first-floor landing offers access to all three bedrooms and the main bathroom. The landing also benefits from a built-in airing cupboard housing the LPG gas-fired combination boiler, with space for a tumble dryer and a heated towel rail. Bedroom one enjoys dual-aspect windows with far-reaching countryside views, built-in wardrobe space, and a radiator. Bedroom two, also dual aspect, shares the same light and airy feel and looks out across the gardens and surrounding landscape. Bedroom three sits at the rear and includes built-in wardrobe storage, making an ideal guest room, child's bedroom, or home office.

The bathroom features a modern suite with a bath, a double shower cubicle, a WC, and a vanity wash hand basin. Finished with tiled floors and walls, it provides a functional yet comfortable space.

Externally:

Externally, the property sits within generous level gardens with a mix of lawns, mature shrubs, and colourful flower borders. Double gates open to a wide driveway offering ample off-road parking for several vehicles. The outdoor space has been carefully maintained and includes a patio seating area ideal for relaxing outdoors. Gardeners will appreciate the greenhouse and raised beds, which provide opportunity for homegrown produce throughout the year.

The outbuildings add further appeal to this property. A large workshop, measuring approximately 24' x 17' includes power, lighting, and windows to the rear—well-suited for hobby use, storage, or as a workspace which also has a seating area sectioned off to the front with a garage up and over door, the new owner could remove this wall to make it into one large space should they wish. A second building provides a garage of around 32' x 18', also with power and lighting, as well as a pedestrian access door to the rear. Together, these facilities offer an excellent setup for anyone needing practical space alongside a comfortable home.

Altogether, this well-proportioned property provides a rare combination of space, charm, and practicality. With its character features, excellent garden size, and substantial outbuildings, it offers a balanced lifestyle opportunity within easy reach of both coast and countryside. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all that this well-kept home has to offer.
