Percival Court 1 Percival Road, Bristol, BS8 3BW

A stunning loft style penthouse with a gorgeous outlook over Clifton College's Newfield and beyond, situated in a superb, quiet, popular residential location within a short walk of Clifton Village, with the added benefits of allocated off street parking for one car, lift access to all floors and no onward chain.

Percival Court, was for many years a Jewish boys boarding house at Clifton College, which was converted into a fine flat development in 2007 and consists of 18 apartments which were all fitted to a high specification. Flat 17 offers two well proportioned double bedrooms, a shower ensuite and a further bathroom. In a vast majority of the flat the ceilings have been opened up to the loft to provide a great feeling of space especially in the kitchen/living/dining room which offers plenty of room combined with the aforementioned views.

Externally there is a communal garden to the front of the property and the allocated parking space, which is situated to the rear of the property.
