"This was our first home after we got married, and our family has grown whilst here. We love being up on the hill and feeling like we're in a village community despite being so close to the city centre. We've reconfigured to make the best use of the downstairs space and have a lovely spacious kitchen/diner, a cosy lounge and an extremely useful utility room. The spacious bathroom and bedrooms has made it easy to have three young children here, and the loft conversion has been our little haven! The road is nice and quiet, but with a strong community feel, supportive whatsapp group, and street parties, and the local area provides loads to do with young children with a great park and lovely schools nearby."
