"A classic Victorian terrace in a great location - that was the remit when we moved to Bristol, and living in the Chessels has more than lived up to our expectations. We love the friendly and welcoming community, the proximity to amazing green spaces in Ashton Court, being so close to the bustle of North St and of course, our favourite thing, being able to wander down to Wapping Wharf for a coffee or a wine! When we bought this property it was in a very sorry state and we have spent the last three and a half years giving it a new lease of life. It's also where we were lucky enough to start a family, admittedly raising babies on a building site wasn't ideal, but to have now transformed this lovely old building into such a comfortable family home is an absolute joy."
